

People On Purpose
Episode 8:
Jenn Olin-Hitt, M. Div., M. Ed.

Jenn is a listener of souls. She spent twenty years as United Methodist clergy before she honed her listening skills and moved into the counseling field. She works as a therapist with adolescents in a residential treatment facility helping them through mental health and substance addiction struggles. She also sees clients in her Spiritual Direction Practice, helping people ask some fundamental questions about “Life, Love, and other Mysteries.” Underlying all of her work is a deep belief in healing through relationship – relationship with each other, relationship with God (or the Holy), and relationship with self.

You can learn more about her work at www.jenniferolin-hitt.com