

People On Purpose
Episode 5:
Lesley Mazzotta

Lesley Mazzotta is the founder and executive director of One World Girl, a nonprofit organization, working in NYC and Long Island, to empower and champion girls to reach their full potential, build leadership abilities and become changemakers in the world.

For over 20 years, she has worked as a producer, educator, workshop facilitator and spiritual director, conceiving and producing unique programming, imaginative events and creative learning opportunities on Broadway, in entertainment and in religious communities around the country.

Lesley also serves as the educational specialist for the RCA Women's Transformation and Leadership, a national initiative that encourages and equips women for leadership and worked for 6 years as Producing Director of Camp Broadway, an award-winning children's theater company in New York City. Lesley has a BA from Tufts University, a Certificate of Creative Arts Therapy from The New School and a Certificate of Spiritual Direction from General Theological Seminary.
