

People On Purpose
Episode 11:
Priya Kaul

Priya Kaul brings a spunky energy and compassion to her work in talent development. Early in her career with at-risk populations in hospitals, Priya discovered her calling when she was invited to facilitate a program for aspiring leaders. Priya finds her professional rhythm in being a strategic partner and collaboratively working with teams to unlock leadership potential. Having worked globally, Priya uses her academic base in Psychology to center her work with people in their leadership development. Believing in purposeful growth, Priya has taken up running as a recent step in her own transformational journey.
